

40 CFR 51.309(d)(4)(v)

Provisions for stationary source NOX and PM. The plan submission include a report which assesses emissions control strategies for stationary source NOX and PM, degree of visibility improvement would result from such strategies. report, the State must evaluate and discuss the need to establish emission milestones for NOX and PM to avoid net increase in these pollutants stationary sources within the transport region, and to support potential development and implementation multipollutant and possibly multisource market-based program. The plan submission must provide for an implementation plan revision, containing any necessary long-term strategies and BART requirements stationary source PM and NOX (including enforceable limitations, compliance schedules, and other measures) by no later than December 2008.