

AGENDA

WRAP Stationary Sources Forum Meeting and Workshop on Best Available Retrofit Technology (BART) November 14-15, 2006 Phoenix, AZ

Speaker Phone: Dial 866-206-0240, then 323375

Tuesday, November 14

Stationary Sources Forum Meeting

- 1:00 Oil & Gas Update
- Final workplan
 - Work plan
 - Presentation
 - Data available from industry
 - Status of emission inventory updates and control technology evaluations
- 2:00 309 Issues
- Non-utility SO₂ emission projections
 - Final report
 - Presentation
 - Final EPA changes to 309 and alternatives to BART
 - Final BART trading rule
 - EPA summary presentation
 - Other
- 3:00 Break

BART Workshop

- 3:30 BART-eligible and potentially-eligible sources in the WRAP region
- List of sources

4:15 Stationary source and BART source contributions to the WRAP emission inventory and visibility modeling results

5:00 Adjourn

Wednesday, November 15

8:30 State presentations on BART status – AZ, CO, NM, NV, WY

- BART Eligibility – How were the sources determined? Are there any unresolved issues?
- Sources Subject to BART – How are these being determined? What is the status, and are there any significant issues?
- BART Control – How will the limit be determined, including consideration of the 5 statutory BART factors? What is the status/schedule for completing this? How can the WRAP help?

10:00 Break

10:15 BART status presentations (Continued) – Summary of other states, Regions 8 and 9

11:00 Alternatives to BART under consideration – CA, CO, UT

12:00 Lunch

1:00 Highlights from EPA's Office of Air Quality Planning and Standards

- Presentation

1:30 Relationship between BART, alternatives to BART, other long-term strategies, and reasonable progress

2:30 Next steps

3:00 Adjourn